

Index

Docent Training Manual for Castro Adobe Rancho San Andres State Historic Park

2.0 Overview / Welcome

2.1 Welcome

2.2 National Register of Historic Places

2.3 Ohlone Occupation and Awaswas Speaking Peoples

2.4 Anza Resettlement Expedition

2.5 Joaquin Ysidro Castro and Family

2.6 Jose Joaquin Castro

2.7 Juan Jose Castro's Rancho San Andres Castro Adobe

2.8 The Many People who have owned and preserved this Adobe

2.9 Joe and Edna Kimbro

2.10 Friends of Santa Cruz State Parks

2.11 Points of Interest on the Tour

3.0 Potter-Church Garden

3.1 Thomas Church and the Potters

3.2 Church's design principles

3.3 How the Castro's used the space

3.4 Planting of the Cork Oaks

- 3.5 Saint Francis bird Bath
- 3.6 Little Red Runaround Rose
- 3.7 Volunteer gardeners

4.0 The Vaqueros and the Hide and Tallow Trade

- 4.1 The Native American Vaqueros
- 4.2 Vaquero Horsemanship and Soft Touch Horse Training
- 4.3 Spanish Horses
- 4.4 Californio Saddle
- 4.5 Vaquero's Spurs
- 4.6 Handmade Riatas – Ropes
- 4.7 Branding at Rodeos
- 4.8 Cow Hides and Tallow
- 4.9 Bull and Bear Fights

5.0 Sala & Furnishings

- 5.1 Introduction
- 5.2 Building Structure
- 5.3 Lighting
- 5.4 Gender and Ethnic Roles
 - 5.4.1 Spanish Men
 - 5.4.2 Spanish Women

5.4.3 Spanish Children

5.4.4 Native Americans

5.5 Furnishings

5.5.1 Dining Table and Chairs

5.5.2 American Empire Sleigh Style Sofa

5.5.3 Chinese Decorated Trunk

5.5.4 Brazier

5.5.5 Fall-Front Bureau Secretary Desk

5.5.6 Export Ceramics

5.5.6A Canton Ware

5.5.6B Hand-painted glaze pattern Starburst,
Chrysanthemum, or Allah

5.5.6C English Transferware Montezuma

5.5.6D Transferware called Rousillon and Corinth

5.5.7 Empire Server with Ginger Jars, Canton Ware covered vegetable dish, and Lacquerware box.

5.5.8 Mahogany Pembroke drop leaf Altar

6.0 Archeology and Interpretation

6.1 Overview

6.2 Timeline

6.3 Historical Photos of Adobe and Residents

6.4 Narrative about Native Peoples as Builders

6.5 Building Restoration and Seismic Stabilization

6.6 Archeological Finds from Rancho

6.7 How to make an Adobe Brick

6.8 Graffiti Wall

7.0 Fandango Room

Introduction

7.1 Californios Welcoming and Generous

7.2 Large Dance Floor

7.3 Guadalupe Castro Instrument Maker and Musician

7.4 The Fandango

7.4.1 Dances

7.4.2 Vaquero Dancers

7.4.3 Cascarones

7.5 The Veranda

8.0 The Bedroom

8.1 The Bedroom of Juan Jose and Rita Castro Pinto

8.2 Furnishings

8.2.1 Mahogany French Empire Sleigh Bed

8.2.2 Sheraton Mahogany Side Table & Whale Oil Lamp

8.2.3 Mahogany Empire Wash Stand

8.2.4 Plantation or Postman's Desk with Chinese Trunk

8.2.5 Flip Top Empire Game Table with Lacquerware Game Box

8.2.6 Mexican Armoire

8.2.7 Black Lacquer Chinese Sewing Stand

8.2.8 Lincoln Rocking Chair

8.2.9 1850 Cradle for Delfina Castro and Rocking Chair

8.2.10 Empire Mahogany Dresser with Shaving Set

8.3 Adobe Lighting

8.3.1 Early Brass Pushup Candlestick

8.3.2 Whale Oil Lamp

8.3.3 Mexican Colonial Carved Candlestick

8.3.4 Brass Chamberstick with Hurricane Shade

8.3.5 Pair of Wrought Iron Wall Sconces

8.3.6 Wrought Iron Chandelier

9.0 Cocina and Rancho Agriculture

9.1 The Cocina (Kitchen)

9.2 Drying Meat (Jerky) and Vegetables

9.3 Indigenous Women

9.4 Braserero (Stove)

9.5 Horno (Oven)

9.6 Other Equipment and Implements

9.7 Shelving

9.8 Coffin

9.9 Wrought Iron Tools

9.10 Escobilla (Cleaning Brush)

Agriculture

9.11 Crops and Animals

9.12 Acorns and Buckeye

9.13 Other Uses for the Cocina Space

10.0 Epilog

10.1 The Anza Expedition

10.2 Establishing Presidios and Missions

10.3 Jose Joaquin Castro

10.4 Juan Jose Castro

10.5 Independence from Spain

10.6 Mexican Rancho Period

10.7 Granting of Rancho San Andres

10.8 Mission Secularization

10.9 Mexican American War

10.10 Construction of the Castor Adobe

10.11 California Becomes a State

10.12 Watsonville Directory

10.13 Legal Disputes

10.14 Hans Hansen

10.15 Succession of Owners

10.16 Elizabeth and David Potter

10.17 Edna and Joe Kimbro

10.18 California State Parks and Friends of Santa Cruz State Parks

10.19 Castro Family Reunion and Friends Acquires Kimbro and McClune Properties

10.20 Restoration Complete and Interpretation Begins

11.0 Frequently Asked Questions and Comments

Isn't sad that so many Californios were displaced by U.S. Immigrants?

Where did the Native Americans who worked on the Rancho Live?

Was it hard to make the Adobe Bricks and did the Friends volunteers use local dirt and building materials?

How many people lived here when it was a Rancho?

Did other Castro families get Land Grants?

Where did the Castros get their water?

Did the Spanish grant land to the retired soldiers?

Where can I find more information about the Rancho San Andres Castro Adobe? (HSR & The Castro Adobe in the Twentieth Century)

What was the Relationship between the Californios and the Land?

What was the Social Standing of the Californios?

Were Women allowed to own land?

Is the Pump House original to the adobe?

